

Please consider this comment regarding the proposal to allow an extended period of time for banking institutions and their affiliates to contact consumers. I'm opposed to any weakening of the no-call list rules that would weaken the rule and allow additional calls to be made without my consent.